The boy stood on the burning deck,
When all but he had fled,
The boat had reached the China Sea,
The sun was overhead.

The boatswain cried "How can you bear
A sun so strong, it cooks!"
The boy replied with haughty mien
"My man, I'm wearing Crookes!"

Not included in this group, however, is Mr. Masao Takahashi, Assistant Professor of Law at Kyushu Imperial University, who was arrested three weeks ago aboard ship as he returned from two years' study abroad on an Education Ministry scholarship.

Among the professors to be tried are Dr. Hyoe Ouchi, of the Tokyo Imperial University, Professors Ryokichi Minobe, Poshtaro Wakamura, Isamu Abe, Kinji Minami, Kinsaku Kasakawa and Hyoe Serizawa, from various other universities and colleges. (International).

SHIRTS WITH LONG TAILS

London, April 28. Whether he was aware that in order to circumvent the quota restriction on cotton piecegoods imported in the Malay States Japanese exporters are sending in cotton shirts with tails several yards long so that, although the shirts are defined as one garment the tails can be cut off and used as piecegoods, and whether steps were now being taken to deal with this evasion of quota restrictions, will be a question which will be put to the Colonial Secretary (Mr. Ormsby-Gore) by Major Froctor in the House of Commons on May 4. (Reuter).

Japanese Attack Repulsed

GRIM BATTLE NEAR YIHSIEN

Talerchwang, April 28. Violent fighting along the northern sector of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway continued at the south-eastern part of Yihshien and north of Fihshien where the two forces are locked in grim warfare. The Japanese made an attack at dawn yesterday from Linfeng-shan and were driven back by the desperate Chinese counter-offensive. Chinese columns are invading the Japanese position at Tancheng from two directions. Judging from the war situation in southern Shantung since their counter-attack yesterday, the Chinese troops are gradually gaining the upper hand. (International).

PREPARATIONS COMPLETE

Hankow, April 28. With preparations of the Chinese forces for a decisive battle completed the outcome of the Japanese drive on south Shantung is expected by Chinese quarters here to be known within three to five days.

Fighting is taking place in both west and north of Tancheng. A severe engagement is reported to be in progress in Changluohao, east of Hanshan, the objective of the Japanese forces which have advanced northward after the recent landing in Hohsien on the Yangtze.

According to Chinese military despatches Chinese troops occupied Sunchiapu railway station about nine miles south-east of Hsuanchen, near Wuhu. Chinese vanguards are stated to be approaching the east gate of Hsuanchen. (Reuter).

CHINESE SCORE SUCCESSES IN SHANSI

Shan, April 28. Chinese forces in southeast Shansi have scored further successes, according to reliable reports.

Hard pressed by the Chinese, the 300 Japanese troops at Lucheng evacuated the town on April 28. Chinese forces re-entered it immediately after their departure.

The Japanese troops which withdrew from Lucheng to Chengyangkwan, suffered further reverses on the night of April 28 when the pursuing Chinese forces subjected them to another attack. They are now retreating to Suenhsien across the west Shansi border. (Central News).

JAPAN UNREASONABLE NEIGHBOUR OF CHINA

Fails To Grasp The Spirit Of Co-operation And Is Big Obstacle To Disarmament

GENERAL WU TE-CHEN'S ADDRESS AT CANTON ROTARY CLUB

Speaking at the Charter Day luncheon of the Canton Rotary Club on Wednesday, General Wu Te-chien, Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, declared that in a peaceful world goodwill, understanding and fellowship among nations prevail. The woes and troubles of one nation is sympathized with and shared by other nations.

"Japan fails to grasp this spirit of co-operation. The world cannot but sympathize with China for having such an unreasonable and unjust neighbour," remarked General Wu.

"The world is now faced with a race in rearmament which brings heavier taxation and increases the cost of living in the four corners of the globe," he added. "This feeling of insecurity has created social unrest all over the world which may be traced to Japan, who has been the main obstacle to disarmament."

I consider it a great pleasure and honour to be able to offer my congratulations on this auspicious occasion, the Charter Day luncheon of the Canton Rotary Club.

I feel very pleased to be able to renew old friendships and meet new acquaintances. I am also very glad to see so many visiting Rotarians.

GENERAL WU TO SUBMIT REPORT

Canton, April 28. General Wu Te-chien, Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, will shortly fly to Hankow to submit a report on political conditions in Kwangtung to the Central Government, according to an official report.

The Governor will also proceed to Chungking to visit President Lin Sen and other high officials at the capital. (International News).

BARONET BEREAVED

The death occurred recently at a London nursing home after a long illness of Caroline Moore, wife of Sir Edgar Bruce Hart, Bt. Sir Edgar was at one time commander in England of the Chinese Customs and was on the Chinese delegation of Postal Union Congresses of Washington (1897) and Rome (1906).

The Ta Tao City Government of Shanghai in Footing has completely demolished all grass huts located in the vicinity of its offices, says a report to the "Standard." Several small tea houses, rice shops and second hand shops were quartered in the huts, the demolition of which, it is stated, was undertaken as a precaution against assassins using the huts as cover.

Hats For The Desperate

Reasonable Shapes

There are still hats that can be worn on the head. These are in contra-distinction to sails, banjos, plates, muffs, tambourines, butterflies, eye-shades, lampshades, pill-boxes, horseshoes, ducks' bills, which are also used in conjunction with the head. Not the least important asset of this summer's headgear is the tackle which keeps it on. In some cases the tackle seems almost kept on by the hat and the dominating part of the whole consists of the strings or straps or undercap which is crowned by the hat, so-called. A pill-box, for instance, may contain only the one pill, but a wide strap from each side of it binds the whole of the back of the head and gives it a becoming line.

One of the shapes to which the desperate will resort, after they have ransacked the works of the various designers, is really based on the old boat shape. Of course everything is done to make it the new boat shape. One side is much more turned up than the other. Half the crown may seem to be loose, as though a quarter of the orange could be taken out and fitted in again. This is only because a wedge of felt has been inserted on the top of the straw. Felt hats are so much easier to buy than straw that something which combines the softness of felt with the summeriness of straw is desirable. This boat shape is seen time and again, sometimes in white or natural coloured straw, with the slanting Tyrolean crown and a bright ribbon round it, sometimes in fine Panama straw, its dullness relieved by insets of felt.

PILL-BOX

Another shape is also not really new, though it has several new tricks. This is the pill-box, which sometimes widens out and becomes the tambourine. The pill-box can also be made of fine dull straw. Its crown is often cut about and the edge appears to be rolled inwards or outwards according to taste. It mostly slants on the head and on the top side there is often a striking ornament of steel or other metal which clinches the whole. The flatter, wider pill-box often has the rolled-in sides, as though the straw had been pulled across the head and tucked under. Bright crepes or ribbons are used as strings down each side and these tie variously, sometimes at the back, sometimes under the chin, while occasionally they are left loose.

Round The Shops

LANE CRAWFORD'S Ladies Salon has just received two new lines of stockings by Deauville and Corticelli in all the new shades such as Blush Glo, Tropica, Marimba and Avenue.

The Deauville stockings are in Cocktail, Vagabond, Gala beige, and Vienna shades of sheer chiffon.

MAYO'S. New dresses and hats have just been received by Mayo's for all dressy occasions and in particular their straw hats appear to prove very popular on account of their smartness.

RIVELLE. More new goods are expected to arrive on Monday and this week they are showing a big variety of summer styles for evening wear and also day time. Novelties and artificial flowers are other, nice things that are being shown now.

Berets equally have undergone a sea-change. Some of them seem to be aping the forage cap and are humped up in the middle. Others stand up on one side of the face and seem to collect there all the gathers in the stuff. Hats tip in two separate pieces or one. The high back may be cut up like the top of a heart. The hat may slant with black satin ribbon. It will be noted that this is worn with a large low bun of hair, instead of the many curls upon which so many hats are supposed to settle and without which they would be as naught. A hat for the between-season, which is also shallow and tipped well over one eye, is in shape like a bread-trencher. On the border, where "Bread" and some wheat-ears would usually be carved, is ruching of picoté ribbon. This can be worn with a veil underneath the hat, instead of on it. The veil is actually put on first over the forehead, from which, being stiff, it stands out a little, and the hat is adjusted afterwards. This is made of black tulle with ribbon to match.

The sailor is a universal shape and sailors are also rife, though very well dissimulated. The ordinary sailor has a more or less straight, smallish brim, raised perhaps a trifle on one side. It sometimes has a wide bow, the tails of which are run through the back of the brim. A rough straw with circé satin ribbon looks smart with a suit. The Breton sailor turns up so much that it looks about to fly away. It is often edged with a colour and has flowers or a bow tucked under the most away part of the brim as liaison between hat and head. Some sailors have fairly flat tops to the crowns. Other crowns run up into a point. Fine straws are used equally with coarse.

like an aeroplane about to come down. Under all these, however, is usually a little cap and it is just a matter of taste how much is above or below the brim.

For high summer, where trees and grass are involved, the big rather flat hat is another perennial. With propellers and gramophone records in mind, it is given a swish by means of feathers curled and laid flat on the brim. It is worn much on one side, so that one eye hardly shows. These hats are also worn with evening dresses and together with long gloves. The two together take one back to the days of Yvette Guilbert.

Flowers are seen everywhere. They serve for both the tops and the underneaths of hats. On the top they look like those circles of small flowers for which glass containers are now made. Underneath, the head looks built up into the hat with them. One hat with a tremendous tip has the whole of the upside covered with small flowers. By contrast there are some severe hats for the country and for wearing with suits. The former are felt almost exclusively, dip in front, and have stitching up the rather tall front of the crown, which falls off backwards. Other hats are little plates upside down and a tall loop of a bow standing up at the back. Vells are everywhere; indeed, hats are so dissimulated by them that most Parisians try the hat without them first.

WIND INDICATORS

"The attention of pilots is drawn to the different procedure in force at Service and civil aerodromes as regards the positioning of the illuminated wind indicators."

At civil aerodromes these are normally of the automatic type and are usually positioned on the aerodrome boundary; this procedure is followed at Lympne airport, where two bomber squadrons are stationed for the time being.

On Service aerodromes the "T" is to be positioned in accordance with the instructions in the Air Ministry Memorandum on Night Flying Training Policy, so as to indicate a safe touch-down position.

New Army Barracks WIRELESS SETS

The completion of the first block of an improved type of barracks will be one of the outstanding events of British Army administration this year. The new buildings will be the quarters of battalions of the Royal Tank Corps.

Situated in the neighbourhood of the terraced hills of Battlesbury and Scratchbury, and commanding the entrance to Warminster, these new barracks mark the start of the general rehousing of soldiers. A feature will be the provision of a degree of comfort never known before in the Army.

Amenities enjoyed by the soldier of today include slipper and shower baths, and "reception" and writing rooms with wireless sets.

SOLDIER-GARDENERS
Soldiers quartered on Salisbury Plain have for the most part to provide their own entertainment. They have their cinemas and dancing halls which help to relieve the monotony of camp life.

Wireless in barracks is a welcome addition and is greatly appreciated when the day's work is done.

Near the barracks ample provision is made for football, cricket, tennis and hockey.

The approach will be brightened.

School Where Pupils May "Answer Back"

Pupils at a school near Toines (Devon) are not obliged to take lessons in a particular subject if they are not interested in it. They are encouraged to be frank and honest. They may even "answer back" the headmaster.

From this school the headmaster (Mr. W. B. Curry) came to the News Chronicle Schools Exhibition to discuss dispassionately aspects of "The Modern Movement in Education."

His school, Dartington Hall, presents the educational side of one of the most interesting social experiments of the generation.

Mr. Curry began his talk by placing upon the shoulders of educationists most of the blame for the Great War, and he warned his audience that unless something was done to adjust the profound irrationality of human society the consequences will be measureless.

UNWISE EDUCATION
"The Great War," said Mr. Curry, "was itself a challenge to traditional usage in education, and the ideas and emotions that led to the Great War and are still hampering civilisation are, to some extent, the product of education."

To some educationists who had now become identified with the modern education movement these were warnings that must be righted in the school-room, and Mr. Curry outlined the trend and significance of the development.

Proneness to hate, so much in evidence everywhere today, is to some degree a direct product of unwise education, Mr. Curry argued, and has suggested to thoughtful educationists a challenge which has inspired the new movement.

TAUGHT BY CANE
If freedom of expression opinions was inculcated in the class-room, toleration towards the point of view of others would follow as a natural conclusion when the younger generation grew to manhood.

In this respect, new schools differed profoundly from traditional schools, where lessons were taught by the cane.

In the modern school, it was the development of the child's emotional life that counted, rather than behaviour and habits.

When Disney announced his intention to spend £50,000 on a seven reel animated cartoon running for 80 minutes, Hollywood roared contemptuously, but when shrewd old brother Roy announced that the final bill amounted to £300,000, "Snow White" became known as "Disney's Folly."

FEAR IN THE FOREST
When the William Morris Agency bid Disney £200,000 for the English rights, he refused and booked it through R.K.O. Radio Pictures at a figure estimated round a quarter of a million sterling.

Recruited from their nocturnal haunts in Manhattan are Madcap Jack White from the 18, Maurice Rocco and Dorothy Sautiers from the Kit Kat Club, George Tappa, tap dancer from the Paradise, Jerry Colonna who has appeared in a dozen hot-spots, Cook and Brown of the Harlem Upstart House, Pat Harrington, Al Norwan and the 52nd Street Girls head the array of Broadway entertainers which appear in "52nd Street."

"You Can't Have Everything," opening at the King's Theatre today, is an excellent musical comedy. It features Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Charles Winninger, Arthur Treacher and other famous players.

The songs are written by Gordon and Ravel, who have been responsible for many of the best song hits in recent pictures.

And no less a person than Gregory Ratoff, whom you have seen time and again on the screen and always enjoyed, is the author of the story.

MINERAL WHICH EXPANDS

Strange mineral known as vermiculite, which expands from five to ten times its original size when heated, has been found at Melville, in the Murchison, and at Mulialyup, in the south-west, according to the Government analyst (Dr. E. S. Simpson).

The mineral may become increasingly valuable as a sound insulator and deadener. It was valueless before its capacity for damping sound waves was discovered a few years ago.

When raised to red heat the temperature of a large proportion of the water in the stone was converted into steam, which burst apart the numerous small layers of which the material was composed. Inquiries are being received from many parts of the world for the mineral.

Domestic Scene: Joan Crawford has been spending a great deal of time knitting a wool purse for Julia Murphy, wife of the dancing-man, George Murphy. Joan mumbles under her breath and stomps her left foot when she happens to drop a stitch.

"Disney's Folly" has become "Disney's Pride." After being viewed by over 55,000,000 people in the United States, Disney's greatest picture "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" a full length colour film has been granted a "U" certificate in London. It will open in Hong Kong next week.

Richard Haestler, the famous Star critic declares: "Disney has produced something for which no other medium could have been used so effectively. He has in fact created cinema history."

"Snow White" is taken from the Grimm fairy story which needed little adaptation. The delicate step daughter of the queen, Snow White, is hidden by her beauty and there dreams of a prince who will some day come and take her away. Instead of a handsome prince, however, a fierce huntsman seizes her and carries her into the forest where the queen has ordered him to kill her step-daughter. Touched by her innocence, he replaces the dagger in its sheath and sets "Snow White" free.

In the gloom of the forest crooked hands reach out towards her, eyes glare from the shadows and evil whispers sound in her ears. Distraught with fear, she flees to the little house where the seven dwarfs live. Finding the place littered and untidy she sets it right before the dwarfs return.

TRICKED

The queen, meanwhile, discovers where her step-daughter is, changes herself into a witch, and takes her a rosy apple. At the first bite the girl falls into a deep sleep for which the only cure is love's first kiss.

When the dwarfs return from work Snow White seems dead and they put her in a glass coffin. Hearing of the sleeping girl the prince visits the house, kisses Snow White and awakens her. The wicked queen is already dead, hurried over a precipice by a thunderbolt.

ADULT INTEREST
"Snow White" is reckoned by most critics to be as human and entertaining as anything Hollywood has produced with living materials and to have round about 90 per cent. adult interest.

So satisfied is hard working Walt Disney with results of his "folly" that he has already given orders for production of his second full length feature "Pinocchio." He had arranged to make "Bambi," but changed his mind at the last minute.

SHE SAVED CRITICS THE TROUBLE
The Archbishop of Canterbury (Dr. Cosmo Lang) revealed recently that 52 years ago a careless housemaid burned the manuscript of a book he was writing on Thomas Cromwell.

"Perhaps she anticipated the verdict of the critics," the Archbishop said.

CHINESE ARMY'S NIGHT HAWKS

Strike Terror Into Japanese
That the Japanese soldiers are afraid of meeting the Chinese in hand-to-hand fighting is generally known, but few can imagine the fear with which they regard the Chinese "night raid squads" in Shanai, where they have been smarting under constant attacks from the Chinese guerrillas.

Members of these squads, formed solely for night raids, all have to undergo special training in the use of their eyes. In pitch darkness, each armed with sticks, they are ordered to exert their sight until they come within a striking distance of each other. Whereupon, down go their sticks.

METHOD OF TRAINING
In order to avoid broken heads and bruised bodies, they exert their eyes to locate the whereabouts of their "opponents" so much so that in a few weeks' time they all get used to darkness. After the training, they can all see things in the dark as clearly as the owls and the cats see their prey.

Members of these squads also have to be finished masters in the Chinese counterpart of jujitsu. In addition, they must also be able to swing their big swords with unusual dexterity and be able to outthrow their enemies in hand-grenade duels.

Roaming the Shanai countryside in the dead of night, these owl-eyed Chinese guerrillas have become a source of terror to the Japanese, so often have their surprise assaults succeeded.

SOMALILAND STATUS UNCHANGED

Not To Become A British Colony

London, April 27.

Mr. W. Ormsby-Gore, Secretary for the Colonies, who was asked in the House of Commons today if he would take the necessary steps to bring British Somaliland into the status of a British colony and its people as British citizens in accordance with their desires, replied: "The answer is in the negative. I am not aware of any widespread desire on the part of the inhabitants of British Somaliland for a change of status." (British Wireless).

NO EXEMPTIONS FROM VISAS

London, April 28.

The question was asked in the House of Commons yesterday, as to whether the Government would consider exempting persons who intended to visit Britain solely for business reasons from the necessity of obtaining visas.

Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, replied that an arrangement of this kind would be impossible in practice. (Transocean).

SEIZURE

British Crew
Assaulted

London, April 28.
Reports of the seizure of the British steamer, Tungwo, by the Japanese at the entrance to the Yangtze River were prominently featured in the newspapers yesterday.
One of the reports alleges that the crew was attacked with bayonets by the Japanese. It appears that the matter was settled after the British gunboat, Cricket, had been despatched to the island of Tsungming, where the seizure took place.
The Japanese are said to have assured the British authorities that an inquiry into the incident will be held.—(Transocean).

PATRIOTIC LEADER
REVEALS GRUDGE
AGAINST JAPAN

Hankow, April 28.
Anti-Japanese sentiment in Korea has risen to a high pitch and, if China wins the war, will burst in the form of a national revolution, declared Miss Cheng Wen-chu, member of the Korean Nationalist Front League, in an interview with the Ta Kung Pao.
Miss Cheng paid high tribute to Chinese women in uniting to support the Government in the war and hoped to join them in the work.

According to Miss Cheng, the Korean Nationalist Front League is a joint organ of the National Revolutionary Party, the Emancipationists' League and the Korean Revolutionists' League. It comprises the following departments: publicity, Chinese language, international affairs and organisation.

A number of Korean males are secretly receiving military training in preparation for a war against Japan, she said.
Miss Cheng was imprisoned by the Japanese for participating in revolutionary activities, and has come to Hankow as a refugee.—(Central News).

PROGRAMME OF CHINA
FOUNDATION

Decisions Made At Meeting Here

The Board of Trustees of the China Foundation, which has been holding its 14th annual meeting in Hong Kong during the last three days, has approved the appropriation of $1,800,000 for cultural and scientific work in China during the coming year.

The bulk of the funds, it is learned, will be given as grants-in-aid to some 30 institutions throughout the country, while part of the money will be used to support 22 fellows who are carrying on research work in foreign countries.

The Trustees have further decided to carry on the Foundation's regular programme according to the policy adopted, despite the hostilities.

The Board has also decided to lay special emphasis this year on medical, agricultural and engineering work in addition to the various branches of science which the Foundation is interested in.—(Central News).

Prompt Steps
To Implement
New Treaty

LONDON, APRIL 27.

PROMPT STEPS HAVE BEEN TAKEN TO IMPLEMENT THE ANGLO-IRISH AGREEMENTS, BOTH IN THE LONDON AND DUBLIN PARLIAMENTS.
Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, Dominions Secretary, has introduced a Bill to the House of Commons to give effect to the agreements regarding the relations of the United Kingdom and Eire.

Mr. De Valera

Mr. Eamon De Valera introduced a similar measure in the Dail and declared that the House must accept or reject the agreements as a whole.

He especially dwelt on the return of ports at present in the hands of the British Navy, and said they were handed over unconditionally.

The agreement finally establishes Irish sovereignty in 26 counties and the territorial seas.

The new Senate met for the first time at Leinster House, which is the same building in which the Dail meets.

WARMLY APPLAUDED
A Dublin message says that Mr. De Valera was warmly applauded in the Dail when he asked for approval of the London agreement. He said that Eire fully realised her obligations regarding defence, and she would modernise her port defensive system. Eire would never permit her territory to be used as a base for an attack against Britain.

He believed that Irish unity would be secured in a short time because he believed the British Government realised that Irish unity was more important than disunity.

The agreement would have been impossible except for Mr. Neville Chamberlain's broad view of conciliation and appeasement in these critical times.

Mr. Cosgrave, leader of the opposition, welcomed the agreement and said his party would vote for it.—(Reuter).

Academia
Sinica
Carries On

The Academia Sinica, China's leading research institute under Government operation, is carrying on as usual despite the war, declared Dr. Tsai Yuan-pel, director of the institute, in an interview today.

The various departments of the institute, according to Dr. Tsai, have been moved to the interior, away from the scene of hostilities.

The meteorology department is in Chungking (Szechuen), which is the new seat of the National Government. The geology, social sciences, psychology, botany and zoology departments are in Kweilin, provincial capital of Kwangsi, while the physics, chemistry, history and philology, astronomy and engineering departments are in Kunming, provincial capital of Yunnan.

All necessary apparatus, Dr. Tsai said, have been safely removed from Nanking to the three places, and the institute is able to carry on its work satisfactorily.—(Central News).

He praised marriage as the greatest and oldest partnership in the world, the best and truest friendship enabling people of opposite temperaments to live in perfect harmony. He added, smilingly:

"My wife and myself have different dispositions. One of us is contentious, combative and stormy. That is my wife. (Laughter). The other is placid, calm, peaceable and patient. That is I. (Loud laughter). Nevertheless, we have lived very happily for half a century."

Saragossa, April 28.

Despite the fact that military operations yesterday were hampered by rainy weather, the forces under General Varela gained further ground in their attempt to gain control of the plains lying northwest of Valencia.

Smashing their way through strong mountain positions they succeeded in reaching the foothills of the Gudar mountains which, together with the mountains of Fobo lying further west, were enveloped practically the whole day in mist. Incidentally, a bitter cold prevailed yesterday throughout the entire Teruel battle area.

HONG KONG TO HAVE OWN SYSTEM FOR IMPERIAL PREFERENCE

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ANNUAL MEETING

Mr. A. L. Shields Elected To Legislative Council

DISCUSSING the question of Imperial Preference and Textile Quotas legislation in his speech at the annual meeting of the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce yesterday, the acting chairman (Mr. A. L. Shields) announced that from June 1 Hong Kong is to have a system of its own for proving Empire content.

Manufacturers' declarations must be supported by accountants' certificates based on an examination of the factory records and countersigned by an officer of the Hong Kong Government.

"Business with the United Kingdom and the Colonial Empire should now run smoothly," said Mr. Shields. "I am glad to be able to state that the Secretary of State for the Colonies has promised to approach those Dominion Governments which do not at present grant any substantial measure of Preference to Hong Kong."

"The subject is complicated by the fact that some of the Dominions require an all-round 50 per cent Empire content. For some manufacturers, even if they extend Preference, the concession will be valueless unless at the same time they agree to accept the 25 per cent Empire content which satisfies the United Kingdom and the Colonies."

Referring to the Sino-Japanese hostilities Mr. Shields said we can only hope that peace may soon be restored and that China, whose welfare is so closely bound up with our own, may be free to resume the development which she had begun in recent years.

"When we last met we were deplored the sudden transfer of the newly-appointed Governor of the Colony, Sir Andrew Caldecott," Mr. Shields continued. "Those of you who have already come in contact with Sir Geoffrey Northcote will agree with me that our sense of loss is substantially mitigated by realisation of the wide experience and admirable qualities of judgment possessed by our new Governor."

"You will note from the Annual Report that the Chamber had to fight a strenuous battle during last summer for the principle that when Government authority intervenes to divert the ordinary course of trade it should give reasonable time for existing commitments to be cleared up."

"I am glad to say that we gained our point. Weaving factories were thus able to dispose of over a million-and-a-half yards of piece goods which otherwise they would have had on the shelves, to say nothing of considerable quantities of unused yarn."

"Textile Quotas legislation has now been applied to the Colony's piece goods manufacturing trade, in which Indian cotton yarn and United Kingdom artificial silk, only, are used in making goods for export to British countries."

"Export merchants will be glad to know that there are hopes of a solution of the thorny problem of London arbitration awards. For twenty years or more Far Eastern traders have been agitating for a better system. During the past year strong pressure has been brought to bear and I hope that we shall soon be able to make a definite statement."

"A Special Committee which has been conferring with the Government for the last two or three years on the subject of amended regulations for the carriage and storage of dangerous goods has now completed its labours. Most of our criticisms of the first draft of the regulations have been met."

"Shipping and shipbuilding interests, which have been pressing for local action under the International Load Line Convention, will note that the Hong Kong Government is now prepared to issue International Load Line certificates to ships registered in Hong Kong, in anticipation of the formal application of the Convention to the Colony."

"The number of students attending the Chinese Language School fell off from 35 in 1936 to 10 in 1937. We shall welcome enquiries from new students in order that the school may continue to fulfil its useful function."

COUNCIL NOMINEE

Mr. A. L. Shields was unanimously elected the Chamber's nominee to act on the Legislative Council during the absence from the Colony of Mr. M. T. Johnson. This was proposed by The Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson and seconded by The Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell.

MEMBERSHIP

"Reduction in membership during recent years of depression has reduced the Chamber's income, and we have been faced with increased expenditure due to the lower sterling value of the dollar. A loss on the year's working for 1937 was met by special contributions from a number of members, to whom our very hearty thanks are due."

COMMITTEE ELECTED

The following were elected to the General Committee for the ensuing year: The Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson, The Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell, Messrs. J. K. Bousfield, D. C. Edmondston, R. D. Gillespie, J. R. Masson, G. Miskin, K. S. Morrison, T. E. Pearce, G. W. Sewell, A. L. Shields, H. V. Wilkinson, D.S.O.

HOPE FOR PEACE

The election of the following members by the General Committee was confirmed: The Begay Co.; British Cigarette Co., Ltd.; Channel Trading Co., Ltd.; Chase Bank; China Bros. Hat Manufacturing Co.; Messrs. Chuan Hing; Colonial Trading Co.; Credit Foncier D'Extreme Orient.; Eastern Trading Co.; Empire Trading Co.; Messrs. A verdict of accidental death was returned by a jury comprising Messrs. J. P. Rush (foreman), J. B. Stewart and H. E. Small at the Central Magistracy yesterday when an inquest was held before Mr. H. R. Butters to inquire into the circumstances surrounding the death of an amah named Tsang Pong-ho.

Decedent, it was stated, was found unconscious in a bath on March 19 by her master, Staff Sergeant Sims, residing at the Military Married Quarters, Kennedy Road. First aid was rendered but it proved unsuccessful. An ambulance was summoned and the amah was conveyed to the Queen Mary Hospital, where she died the next afternoon.

IRONING CLOTHES
Dr. Tan Hee-choo, who performed the post-mortem, said yesterday that the cause of death was due to concussion of the brain. There were bruises on deceased's back near the spine, and he suspected that it might have been carbon dioxide or some other gas which rendered her unconscious and caused her to fall into the bath. Deceased was believed to be ironing some clothes prior to going into the bathroom.

CAVE MURDER TRIAL ENDS AT SESSIONS

Two Men Sent To Gallows

'DELIBERATE AND CRUEL CRIME'

Sentence of death was passed on Lau Kwong-fai and Leung Kam-ki, defendants in the Cave Murder Case, by His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday after the jury had returned against each of them a verdict of guilty of the killing of Huen Kon-hing, one of two brothers, in a cave on a hillside above Causeway Bay on March 10.

Following a summing-up of approximately one and a half hours by His Lordship, the jury deliberated 33 minutes before returning their verdict and, in endorsing this, His Lordship said it was a deliberate and very cruel crime.

Accused, who had retained a calm and, at times, almost detached demeanour throughout the trial, reiterated their innocence before sentence was passed but received the latter stoically, both of them smiling, and the first bowing to His Lordship as he was led away.

Originally, when the trial commenced on Wednesday, it will be recalled, three men were arraigned, and the third was released following submissions by his counsel, Mr. D.J.N. Anderson, that there was no evidence against him.

Mr. E.H. Williams, Assistant Attorney-General, prosecuted, while Mr. Lo Tung-fan, instructed by Mr. A. el Arculli, and Mr. H.W. Lee, instructed by Mr. J.M. Hall, appeared for first and second accused, respectively.

The jury were: Messrs. J. Murphy (foreman), J.A. Lim, Leung Tsai, D. Xavier, Paul Wu, L.A. Soares and Ling Kam-hon.

ACCUSED'S EVIDENCE
Further cross-examined yesterday, Lau, who had given his evidence-in-chief on Wednesday, said that during his struggle with deceased, Kon-wang, brother of the latter, dashed upon them and was shot.

Questioned in regard to the dying depositions of Kon-wang, who alleged he fired three shots at him, accused said he accepted this allegation at the time because he thought he would be charged with a lighter offence as Kon-wang was still alive. He dared not admit he had any share in the killing of Kon-hing as he knew he was dead.

Leung Kam-ki, second accused, said in evidence, said he had nothing to do with the killing of Kon-hing nor was the allegation of Kon-wang in his dying depositions that he had been holding a gun, true.

COUNSEL'S IMPASSIONED PLEA
Mr. Williams addressed the jury at length for 45 minutes, and after Mr. Lo had pleaded his client's case, Mr. Lee made an impassioned appeal for the release of his man.

THE SUMMING-UP

His Lordship, in his summing-up, said that regarding the statement of Kon-wang, Dr. Thomas had said he was amazed at the way in which he had rallied. There were no signs of rambling. There was a remarkable agreement between the deposition and the first prisoner's first statement.

Sergeant Poxon's evidence that the revolver had been fired in only three chambers, if believed, proved the first accused a liar on a very important point.

Regarding the second prisoner, His Lordship said he came into the picture only on the assumption that he and the first accused had formed a common design to commit a felonious attack on one or either of the brothers.

Tracing his movements following the tragedy, His Lordship said they were strange for the unwilling onlooker of a dual tragedy.

FORTHCOMING MARRIAGES

Two forthcoming weddings are announced:—

Mr. Leslie John Davis, Doctor of Medicine, of No. 2 University Path and Miss Marjorie Adelaide Roeber, of the Gloucester Hotel.

Mr. Arthur Chailly Chan, dentist, of No. 8 Ashley Road, and Miss Angela Maria da Silva, teacher, of No. 43 Peking Road, second floor.

JOCKEYS WITNESS WEDDING

Two well-known jockeys were the witnesses at the marriage at the Registry, Supreme Court, yesterday, of Mr. Zahar Velichinsky, horse trainer, and Miss Tamara Kruglik.

They were Messrs. B.A. Proulx and W.G. Poy. Mr. W. Aneurin Jones, Deputy Registrar of Marriages, officiated.

In his final directions His Lordship warned the jury that, if taking the evidence of the accused and comparing it with that of the witnesses for the Crown, they had any reasonable doubt as to whether their story was true, they must give the benefit of that doubt to the accused.

The jury retired at 4.46 and returned at 5.19.

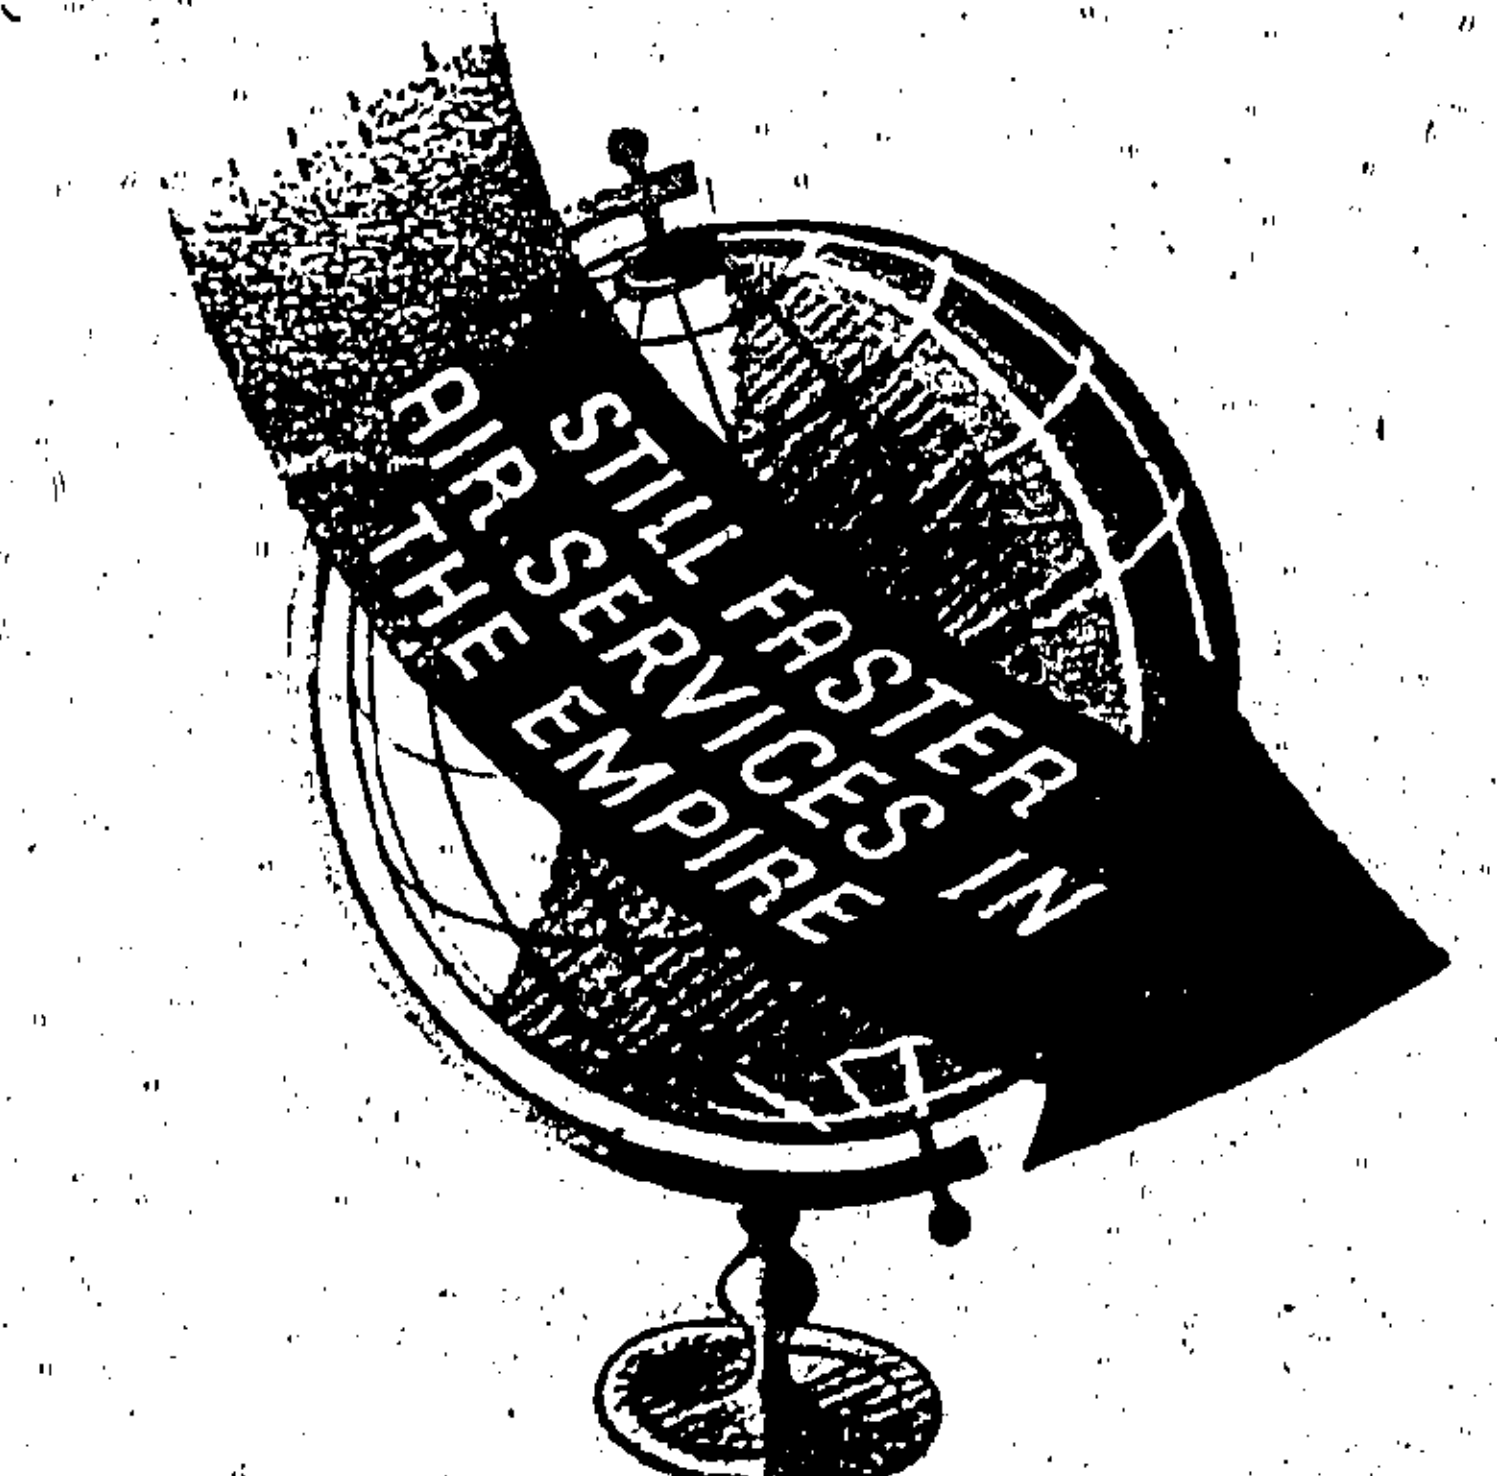

SENTENCE RECEIVED UNMOVED

In passing sentence, His Lordship said: "The jury have found each of you guilty of murder on evidence which, in my opinion, amply justifies that verdict. It was a deliberate and very cruel murder and for the crime of which you have been found guilty the law provides only one sentence."

The death sentence was then passed and, though a number of people in the public seats showed visible signs of distress and agitation, accused appeared as unmoved as they had been all through their trial.

His Lordship thanked the jury and exempted them from service for 12 months.

Addressing Mr. Williams, His Lordship asked whether he wished to proceed on Friday (today) with the second charge or to keep it on the file till the May Sessions. Mr. Williams requested the latter.

IS JAPAN
SHORT OF MAN-POWER?

FROM THE MILITARY onlookers point of view, the most interesting aspect of the Sino-Japanese hostilities has not been the news of battles lost and won or the use of novel methods of warfare, but the modification in the Japanese forms of attack as the war has progressed and Japan's resources have diminished.

At the start of the hostilities the Japanese poured thousands of soldiers into the field, heedless of casualties; rained colossal numbers of shells on strategically important targets; and dropped plane-load after plane-load of bombs on to fields or deserted villages.

But when the war was not "over by Christmas" and the waste still went on with still the same poor results, changes became noticeable in the Japanese tactics, changes which have become more marked with the passing of the months.

NO LONGER do planes drop their explosive cargoes from the protection of clouds high above the range of anti-aircraft guns but they are forced to fly low so that their machine-guns can be brought into use.

The Navy is less bombastic with the result that it doesn't now attempt to NAVY LESS justify its boasting BOMBASTIC with shells aimed at objects known only when the missiles land. It costs less just to ram defenceless junks.

For a time mechanised units raced recklessly ahead of their supporting troops, but they operate no more. Neglect of the elementary precaution of protecting lines of communication left them stranded to be annihilated by the guerrillas.

From the reports of the difficulty which Japan is experiencing in financing the present campaign, these modifications in tactics can be readily understood.

BUT FROM the latest happenings on the Shantung front emerges a much more significant fact which seems to indicate that Japan is not only running short of munitions and supplies but also of men.

The reason for thinking this is that the Japanese have been carrying out night CASUALTIES of their previous methods it can only be assumed that their object is to reduce their casualties as much as possible.

Otherwise it is of no advantage to the invaders to attack under cover of night. This has been proved by the unsuccessfulness of their last two night offensives, due probably to the had discipline in the Japanese Army.

Unswerving attention to orders is essential when troops attack at night. The Japanese must be aware of this and the fact that they would be seriously handicapped by the shockingly poor discipline amongst their men and officers, so the only assumption is that they have decided to meet a desperate situation by desperate action.

THE CHINESE have had no trouble in holding on to their positions against these night attacks and at dawn the Japanese are in such confusion that by a simple counter-attack the Chinese easily regain whatever ground may have been temporarily lost.

In a night attack the air can play no part and if, as the Japanese maintain, NO PLANES they are superior AT NIGHT in the air, why should they deprive themselves of this valuable arm unless they consider the smaller casualties caused by night fighting are sufficient compensation.

The Chinese soldier, who is 89 per cent. a countryman, can undoubtedly see far better at night and be more resourceful than the Japanese soldier, who is usually a

CATHEDRAL

Mr. H. Owen-Hughes, who spoke on behalf of friends outside the Cathedral circle, said that many friends in the Colony, specially amongst the sporting circle, had enjoyed Rev. Baines' association and on behalf of them he wished him every happiness and good luck for the future.

MR. CASSIDY'S REMARKS

Mr. P. S. Cassidy said:—"In my memory Harry Baines will remain a bright and cheerful personality always ready to lend a hand, tackling unpleasant jobs with smile, indefatigable in helping the underdog and carrying on a two man job without complaint. I am sure that he will be the first to acknowledge the advice and support which he has received from the Bishop and of course technically the Bishop has been acting Dean during the interregnum."

"But the fact remains that Harry Baines had had to cope with the thousand and one problems which parish work entails and he has had to do so single-handed. It has been on my conscience for some time past and I have no doubt, on that of the Cathedral Church Council that Harry has been overworked, but as you realise circumstances prevented us from providing him with adequate help. Harry's shoulders are broad and he is young enough to bear up under the strain but we all realise how thoroughly he has deserved a rest from routine duty."

"We all wish that he was returning at the end of his leave but I feel that there is bigger work for him to do in England and I foresee him taking his place, in due course, amongst the leaders of the Church at Home."

"On behalf of the congregation, Harry, I wish you God-speed."

Lady Pollock, in making the presentation expressed her regrets that the many friends in Hong Kong had to lose a charming person who was loved by all.

REV. BAINES' REPLY

"I thank you from the bottom of my heart," said Rev. Baines in reply. "I am more grateful than I can say for the friendship that has been shown and lavished on me." He said that though he would be away from the Colony he could not forget the happy memories of the friendliness of the people here.

The speaker thanked Dean Swann in his persistence in bringing him out to the Colony and the Bishop who had firstly been his helpful counsel and had given him much encouragement, secondly a colleague who had shouldered his tasks, and "allowed him to share the great plan" in Church work and lastly a true friend. "If there is a better spirit to be found in a parish show it to me and I shall ask to go there."

The Rev. Baines also acknowledged his thanks to the Church Missionary Society and other free Church Missions who had shown faith in him in asking him to share their work, and the Chinese clergy who had shown great friendliness to him during his stay here.

Thanks were also paid to the Cathedral Secretaries, Miss Locke, Miss McCaw and Miss Baskett and Mr. Poy who had been a great help to him in his work.

Rev. Baines also thanked Lady Pollock for her kind advice on many occasions and Mr. F. Mason and Mr. Lafford, former and present organists of the Cathedral, who had given much pleasure in their music.

The watch bears the following inscription:—"To Rev. H. W. Baines, From friends of the Cathedral and the Colony of Hong Kong April 1938."

AIR MAIL TIMES AND
TRAFFIC NOISES

Air mail posting times and traffic noises were touched upon by Mr. D. F. Landale when he spoke in support of the Chairman's motion at the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

"At present the air mail closes at noon on Sundays and 5 p.m. on Thursdays; the planes themselves leave at 6 a.m. on Monday and Fridays," said Mr. Landale.

"To check these closing times I happened to go into the Post Office and I noticed on the wall behind the counter the following text which, I am told, comes from the Book of Proverbs:—

"As cold waters to a thirsty soul so is good news from a far country."

"If this is applicable to us out here, the converse must be equally applicable to those in the far country."

"While I do not go so far as to suggest that the Postmaster General should hang another Biblical text in the Post Office (a suitable one, incidentally, could be found in Revelations, Chapter 21, verse 25) yet I do feel that the Post Office might assist the community to give that cold drink to its friends at Home by keeping open for air mail until seven o'clock, on Thursdays at any rate, if not on Sundays."

TRAFFIC NOISES

"The second point I should like to mention is in regard to traffic noises in the Central District."

"I am glad to see that this matter has already been taken up with the Commissioner of Police, and I can only hope that the steps he has already taken will eventually reduce the infernal din we luckless people, who are not tenants of the Hong Kong Bank, have to sit through." (Laughter).

In the International Hockey Tournament on the Club Ground yesterday, Portugal defeated England by one goal to nil.

L. G. Gosano netted in the first half to give his side an early lead. In the second half the English put on pressure, and would have scored if Portugal had not such a fine goalie in B. Alves. M. Dunne, at inside-left, almost scored a few times for England, once hitting the top of the goal post.

SIR CLARK KERR
ARRIVESBUT RAILWAY IS BOMBED

Although assurances had been made that every precaution would be taken to allow safe passage for the train on which the British Ambassador and Lady Clark Kerr were travelling to Kowloon from Hankow, the Kowloon-Canton Railway tracks were not devoid of the daily bombings of the Japanese planes.

On Wednesday, before the train on which Sir Archibald and Lady Clark Kerr were travelling on arrived at Cheungmukow station, the tracks at this junction were damaged by bombing. However, repairs were effected in time to allow the train to arrive safely in Kowloon at 8.30 yesterday morning.

There were other Britons on the train and it is believed that another batch left Canton by boat last night.

The A.D.C. to His Excellency the Governor was present at the railway station to greet Sir Archibald and Lady Kerr, who immediately upon arrival proceeded to Government House as guests of His Excellency the Governor.

Sir Archibald and Lady Clark Kerr will leave for Shanghai today by the Empress of Canada.

Mr. J. H. Penington, Chief Constructional Engineer of International Combustion Limited, is leaving on a business trip to Shanghai today by the Empress of Canada. He will be away about 10 days.

Mr. Fisher, who is on the staff of the Hong Kong Telephone Company, is a very keen amateur "movie photographer" and has made some excellent films of country life in the New Territories.

Miss Ruby Mow Fung, of Messrs. Gilman & Co., has left the Colony for eight months' leave. She was Hon. Secretary of the Hong Kong Street Sleepers' Shelter Society, the post now being taken over by Miss M. Lee.

CHINESE RADIO STATIONS CEASE OPERATING TO AVOID COMPLYING WITH JAPANESE REGISTRATION

Prefer To Deal With The Settlement Authorities

Shanghai, April 28. All but three of the Chinese radio stations in Shanghai voluntarily stopped operating today to avoid complying with the Japanese request to register at the Japanese broadcasting superintendent's office.

The registration deadline was reached yesterday when officials of all stations held a meeting and decided to go off the air temporarily until a satisfactory solution to the present impasse has been reached.

One reason for the suspension is reported to be a Japanese threat to remove part of the machinery to prevent further broadcasting unless the order was obeyed before today.

AMERICA AND FASCISM Roosevelt's Policy Attacked

Washington, April 27. President Franklin D. Roosevelt's recently expressed approval of the Anglo-Italian agreement was criticised by the Washington Star today in an article reflecting the current uncertainty of Americans and their self-questioning in regard to American foreign policy.

Claiming that the American people disapprove of the President's action, the paper says, "We have witnessed a complete reversal of the United States Government's attitude towards world lawlessness. We have condoned the annexation of Ethiopia and Italian intervention in Spain, for approval of both these acts of brigandage is the kernel of the agreement which Signor Mussolini has forced from Mr. Chamberlain."

FASCIST TACTICS

"From the most exalted place in America words have been spoken indicating that Fascist tactics no longer stir indignation in the United States Government's breast."

"One ventures to believe the American people feel differently and that Mr. Chamberlain's realism does not prevail here to that extent," the paper concludes.—(Reuter).

SOVIET-JAPAN ISSUES

Moscow, April 28. It is stated, according to the Tass Agency, that the Soviet is attempting to agree with Japan on nine outstanding Russo-Japanese issues but apparently, hitherto they have been unsuccessful.

Japan is stated to have made counter-proposals, the reply to which was handed to the Soviet Embassy in Tokyo on Monday, in what resembles an appeal to the Soviet to come to an agreement. The Soviet has hitherto not replied.—(Reuter).

VALEDICTORY

Cricket Circles' Loss By Harry Baines' Departure

With the departure of the Reverend Harry Baines for home on the s.s. Empress of Canada today, not only St. John's Cathedral and the church and social community in general, but cricket circles also will be losing a familiar and ever popular figure.

The cricketer-padre, ever since since his arrival here, has closely identified himself with the game locally, turning out for both the first and second elevens of the Hong Kong Cricket Club. In 1934, while playing more for the junior side than the senior, he was "captain" for Hong Kong in the away Interport with Shanghai.

A batsman who has modelled his game on sound orthodox lines but who, on occasion, can hit hard, a wicketkeeper of no mean ability and, even, on occasions, a bowler, the departing sportsman has rendered yeoman service to the Cricket Club but, much more important than that, has been the way in which he took to the game. Colony cricket is definitely the loser by his departure.

BRITISH AND FRENCH MINISTERS CONFER AT DOWNING STREET

Czechoslovakia Situation Will Engage Attention

London, April 28. Informed quarters here state that three subjects were discussed by the British and French Ministers in the course of their meeting this morning.

1. The Anglo-Italian Pact, especially in regard to its possible effect on Franco-Italian understanding;
2. The Spanish problem in connection with which the British plan for withdrawal of volunteers was examined; as well as questions of control by land and sea;
3. The recognition of the Italian conquest of Abyssinia by members of the League of Nations and the procedure to be adopted in this matter.

It is further stated that after the luncheon given by the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, in honour of the French guests, M. Daladier (Premier) and M. Bonnet (Foreign Minister) and before their departure for Windsor Castle, where they will stay the night, Central European problems will be discussed with special reference to the situation in Czechoslovakia.

In view of the great number of subjects to be discussed it is believed that the French Ministers will not be able to leave for Paris before Saturday afternoon.

All the newspapers manifest satisfaction that the Anglo-French conversations have now begun, and express the hope that the conversations will result in a close agreement. It is noticeable that in accounts of the meeting the papers allude to "the entente cordiale" between the two countries.

Sir Robert Vansittart, Chief Diplomatic Adviser to the British Government, and M. Corbin, French Ambassador to London, also attended the meeting.—(Transocean).

PUPPET'S LIFE WANTED

Hankow, April 28. Su Hsi-wen, so-called Mayor of the "Ta Tao" municipal government in Shanghai, has received an anonymous letter threatening another attempt on his life, according to a message from Shanghai.

JEW TO REVEAL PROPERTY

Severe German Measure

Berlin, April 27. As head of the Four-Year Plan Field Marshal Hermann Goering has issued a decree ordering German and Austrian Jews, worth more than 5,000 marks, to declare their property in Germany and abroad.

Foreign Jews domiciled in Germany must declare their property in Germany.

It is a matter for speculation whether the decree is connected with the American High Court's order for the seizure of credits deposited by the Berlin General Electric Company, with American banks. Nearly $40,000,000 is involved.

The decree forbids the sale of industrial works, wholly or partly owned by Jews, except by special licence.—(Reuter).

I.L.O. DIRECTOR TO RESIGN

Geneva, April 28. It is reported here that Mr. Harold Butler, director of the International Labour Office, will resign his post in order to become rector of New College, Oxford.

Mr. Butler has been connected with the I.L.O. since its foundation, first as British sub-director, and since the death of M. Albert Thomas in 1932 as director.—(Transocean).

Air Experts See U.S. Plane Factory

Washington, April 27. The British Air Mission visited Baltimore this morning and inspected the Glen Martin Aeroplane Factory, returning to Washington in the evening, after which the members proposed to leave almost immediately for the Pacific Coast on their main tour of air factories.

As though to emphasise the non-political and purely technical nature of their task, the members of the Mission are not making any official calls, here but are confining themselves to conferences at the British Embassy. They had an interview with Sir Ronald Lindsay yesterday.

Although badgered considerably by newspapermen the members of the Mission are managing, good-humouredly, to say nothing.—(Reuter).

OPIUM-SUPPRESSION CONFERENCE

Canton, April 28. The opium-suppression conference summoned by General Wu Te-chen was concluded yesterday, when the Kwangtung Governor received the different supervisors of the anti-opium campaign in the province and gave them separate instructions.

On the basis of the findings in the conference a new programme for opium-suppression will be formulated, it is learned.—(Central News).

FORMER ENGLAND PLAYER DEAD

The death has occurred in Selly Oak Hospital, Birmingham, of Alec Leake, the former Small Heath, Aston Villa and Burnley centre-half, who played for England on five occasions. He had been in indifferent health for some months, but was at the Birmingham v. Manchester City game a fortnight ago. Subsequently he had a relapse and was taken to hospital.

KING ZOG MARRIED

CEREMONY IN TIRANA

Tirana, Apr. 28. The marriage of King Zog of Albania and the Countess Apponyi took place in the Great Hall of the Imperial Palace yesterday.

The President of the Albanian Parliament conducted the ceremony, assisted by the President of the Supreme Court.

The President of the Parliament read the three articles of the Civil Code declaring the couple must be faithful to each other and that the wife must follow her husband, who must protect her.

He asked the King and Countess whether they accepted one another and then simply declared them married. It was a very brief ceremony.

Among the many splendid gifts received were a magnificent automobile from Herr Adolf Hitler and four grey thoroughbred horses from the Hungarian Government.—(Reuter).

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES

L. GOLDMAN WINS CLUB TITLE

NEW FAVOURITE FOR DERBY

PASCH'S FINE WIN IN 2000 GUINEAS

Newmarket, April 28.
Mr. Henry Morris' Pasch, starting at 5 to 2, won the Two Thousand Guineas Classic from Scottish Union, backed at 9 to 1, by two lengths, while 11 lengths separated the latter from Mirza, a 7 to 1 chance, which came third. There were 13 starters.

This was Mr. H. E. Morris' second classic win, having won the Derby with Manna, in 1925, when it was also backed at 9 to 1. His Majesty the King, who made his first visit to Newmarket, was accompanied by the Princess Royal, the Countess of Harewood, and after the race visited the unsaddling enclosure where he chatted with Mrs. Morris, the wife of the owner of Pasch.

FOR THE DERBY?

Mr. Morris is lucky to own such a fine colt as Pasch, which is a sure warm favourite for the Derby as holding its own in the finish. It should not find much difficulty in staying the 1 1/2 mile Derby distance especially as he is a descendant of a staying sire in Blandford.

Gordon Richards, the champion jockey, in a statement to Reuter said, "I was delighted to ride my first Two Thousand Guineas winner on Pasch. I was being led by a head after passing the six furlong mark where I steadied my mount, but Pasch came into his own again in gallant style and was a ready winner."

PREVIOUS WIN

Pasch, who did not run as a two-year-old won his only race, the Coventry Stakes, on April 16, and yesterday covered the mile in 1 min. 39 8-10 secs.

Scottish Union, which came second, appeared to be staying on, but Mirza was at the end of its tether.

Portmarnock was the Derby favourite prior to yesterday's race while Best Drawn also appeared to fall to stay the distance, fading out in the last quarter.

The weather was fine and the going very firm while a large crowd witnessed the race.—(Reuter).

SANDER LOSES IN STRAIGHT SETS

By F. Mela

Lolly Goldman beat W. Sander by scores of 6-2, 6-4 and 6-1 on the Stand Court at the Hong Kong Cricket Club yesterday and thus became singles tennis champion of the Club for another year.

The match was more interesting than one would be led to think by a mere glance at the scores. Sander played good tennis but was up against a better and much more experienced man.

STROKES LACK STING

Goldman is not the same player he used to be though the strokes are still there. He has lost a lot of his dash and his shots, though accurate, lack sting. On the forehand Sander was easily his equal and in the first set, though Goldman took it at 6-2, Sander sent across some very good length drives.

Sander was foot-faulted once by P. E. Basket, Hon. Secretary of the Club, who was linesman yesterday and it was indeed refreshing to see at last a baseline umpire who does more than call the out-sides.

Reviewing the play, Goldman had things his own way in the first and third sets but in the second stanza he was made to cover a lot of ground by Sander who placed his deep drives very accurately.

BACKHAND WEAK

The one fault I found with Sander yesterday was that he attempted backhand aces too often and thus lost a good many points. Sander has youth on his side and need not feel discouraged by his defeat. If he perseveres there should be plenty of good tennis ahead for him and anyway he had the satisfaction yesterday of going down, fighting to the last point.

A MYSTERY HORSE

Having helped to provide a bookmaker with a couple of elgias over the Lincolnshire and Grand National double, an optimistic friend now expects me to contribute towards a summer holiday, writes a Home correspondent.

Pasch, a three-year-old colt, never as yet seen (in a public racecourse, is the earliest line in information. Mr. H. E. Morris owns this "mystery" horse and Mr. Fred Darling is training it at Beckhampton.

SCOTTISH CUP FINAL

EAST FIFE WIN AFTER EXTRA TIME

London, April 28.

In the final replay of the Scottish Cup at Hampden Park, East Fife and Kilmarnock were again featured in a dour struggle and the former only emerged victorious by 4-2 after extra time had been played.

The game was played in summer-like weather before a crowd of 91,000. There was little excitement in the first quarter of an hour, then McKerrrell, the East Fife left winger, netted the ball with a drive from 15 yards.

Kilmarnock lived up somewhat with several attacks and Thomson, their outside-right, brought down in the penalty area, himself converted the spot kick. MacGrogan, cut-side left, gave them the lead but McLeod, the opposition inside-right equalised with an over-head kick.

East Fife stood the strain of extra time much better than Kilmarnock and their inside-left, Miller, and McKerrrell, netted during this period to give their side an excellent victory.—(Reuter).

In their first encounter last Saturday a draw of one-all resulted after extra-time.

FAIR PROFIT SHOWN BY STEAMBOAT COMPANY

Chairman's Warning Of Excess River Tonnage

Out of a profit of $182,869.85, payment of a dividend of 75 cents per share, payment of a bonus to shore and floating staffs absorbing $9,555.50 and carrying forward of $113,314.35 were recommended and passed at the annual meeting of the Hong Kong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Co., Ltd., which was held at the Company's offices yesterday.

The chairman, Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo, presided, being supported by Mr. J. P. Braga, O.B.E. and Mr. H. Staples Smith (directors) and Mr. H. da Luz (secretary). Shareholders present were: Messrs. M. Fernandez, W. E. Kirby, Wei Tat, Ho, Kom-tong, Luk Pak-to, M. H. Lo, Hung Tze-ye, and Kwan Yau-kwong.

Addressing the meeting, the Chairman said:—
In my address to you, last year, I remarked that there were indications of the turning of the tide in the affairs of the Company. Despite the "unrelenting competition which prevailed, the first half of the year under review found us more than holding our own; we had parted company with figures in red, and had a fair profit to show.

As regards the second half, on account of the Sino-Japanese hostilities, and withdrawal of certain tonnage from the River by reason of the blockade of the China coast, this Company has experienced improved returns from September onwards.

The freight business assumed a steady volume since the beginning of the year, and I venture to think that this very desirable steadiness was largely due to the confidence engendered by the Chinese Government's improved monetary policy.

LIFTING OF DUTY

Cargoes of rice, flour and metal were much in demand in South China, the first named commodity in particular reaching Canton in great quantities during the first months of the year by reason of the lifting of the import duty there.

Exports from Canton also gained ground and the usual supply of vegetables, cattle, pigs and fowl was maintained.

As regards the passenger trade, we managed to draw a fair quota of patronage as a result of the truce which existed among all the interested parties operating services between the two ports.

Until stopped by the Canton authorities in September, the night service continued a popular innovation.

RIVER BOOM

In October the Canton authorities, because of the presence of certain units of the Japanese navy, caused a boom to be placed across the river. This resulted in not a few steamers being bottled up at Canton for about twelve days. I may mention that our steamers do not carry War Risks insurance because of the prohibitive cost of covers.

I would, however, emphasise our appreciation of the consideration shown by the Canton authorities towards foreign shipping companies. Compatible with the vigilance and precaution which they had to exercise, river steamers were directed to a new navigable passage—the Hill Passage—when the old channel was blocked.

I wish to take this opportunity of recording this Company's grateful thanks for the whole-hearted co-operation and assistance rendered by His Majesty's Navy in the river.

On the Macao Line I have little of importance to report except that the absence of any surplus tonnage made things easier. The steamers were fairly well supported.

STAFF'S LOYALTY

Once again the Directors have to thank the staffs, both Floating and Ashore, for their loyalty and willing and whole-hearted co-operation, which is really appreciated. I feel quite sure that I voice your gratification also when I say that nothing gives the Board greater pleasure than to be in a position to recommend the payment of the proposed bonus to staffs.

Our agreement with Messrs. Butterfield and Swire continued to operate satisfactorily, as did the Canton Freight Pool.

Your Directors have, as usual, been unremitting in their efforts towards the economical running of your steamers. Cost of coal and stores was again higher than in the previous year, the first named in particular having appreciated nearly 30 per cent.

The amount of $27,030.34 that is proposed should be written off the value of your steamers, represents the usual five per cent of their book value.

CANTON PROPERTIES

Concerning the registration of Company's properties at Canton with the Chinese authorities, I have to report that the official certificates of registration in respect of the new title deeds have now been received.

You will notice that the amount of $130,813.06 which is charged to repairs is higher than that of last year. This is due to the repairs to damages occasioned by the typhoon of September 2, 1937.

The "Kinsan," although under shelter at Stonecutters Island, went aground, and as a result a few of her plates had to be looked into.

The shore end of the Wing Lok Wharf was completely demolished, and as this part of the structure was old and was due for early reconstruction, your Directors decided, in consultation with the architect and the underwriters, to effect its entire renewal. The two casualties cost us about $38,000.00.

Smuggling continued to give the management great anxiety and unremitting vigilance had to be exercised against the smugglers.

Last March your Directors decided to invest some of the surplus funds available in the purchase of Hong Kong Government 34 per cent Bonds.

ANXIETY FOR FUTURE

Before concluding, I would like to remark that we have made a good start in the current year. Returns continue to give satisfaction. But I fear I must strike a note of warning. Last year I had occasion to point out the gravely unsatisfactory character of the river business between Hong Kong and Canton owing to the surplus tonnage then trading on the river at competitive rates, which made it well-nigh impossible to produce an adequate return on capital invested.

Although this Company is, of course, benefitting from the present abnormal circumstances, it is not easy to look with complacency to the time, if it should unfortunately arrive, when the same old tale of superfluous tonnage and "cut-throat" and uneconomic competition will have to be faced again. I can only therefore say that for the present we are doing well, but the future prospects are undefinable and must be regarded with some misgiving if not actual anxiety.

With these remarks I beg to propose that the Report and Accounts as presented be adopted.

The Report and Accounts, were unanimously adopted. Mr. Ho Kom-tong seconded the motion.

Messrs. M. K. Lo and H. Staples Smith were re-elected to the Board of Directors. Mr. Hung Tze-ye, proposing and Mr. Wei Tat seconded.

Messrs. Linstead and Davis were re-elected auditors at an annual remuneration of $1250.

There being no other business, the meeting concluded after Mr. W. E. Kirby had proposed a vote of thanks to the Chairman and Directors for their invaluable work during the past year.

SAILOR CHARGED IN COURT

Drove Car Without Permission

Leading Stoker George Hogg of H.M.S. Parthian appeared before Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Magistracy yesterday on charges of driving a motor vehicle on April 20 without a driver's licence, without the owner's permission and malicious damage to the car.

Inspector Baker asked for a remand of 24 hours which was granted.

The car belonged to Dr. Li Ping-shun, and it was said that the vehicle was so badly damaged that it would probably be a total loss. Defendant was alleged to have taken the car from the garage and run into a lamp standard.

EGYPTIAN COTTON DUTIES

ANXIETY FELT IN LANCASTHIRE

London, April 27.

Mr. R. S. Hudson, Secretary of Overseas Trade, received deputations of Manchester manufacturers today, when the deputation expressed the grave anxiety felt in Lancashire at the unexpected and severe increases in Egyptian cotton duties.

The deputation urged the Government to make representations to the Egyptian authorities regarding the matter, and also urged the comparative advantage to Egypt, as well as to Lancashire's trade of the quota system.

Mr. Hudson in reply expressed complete sympathy with the case presented and said the Government was prepared to make further strong representations to the Egyptian Government.—(Reuter).
